Here in this dramatic painting, we are witness to the unfolding drama of Canadian history. The strong solid realism seen in the commanding figure of the rider on his splendid mount stands in contrast to the airy visionary procession of "riders in the sky" bringing to mind memories of the many who have gone before, whose courage and devotion did establish the enduring traditions of the Force. By including the lettered motto and the crests of the Royal Canadian Mounted Poilce and of Canada's Provinces and Territories, the artist has here bound together, into one epic historic images, 125 years of strength, service and devotion to duty.
